

MAP Farmworker Legal Services Seeks Supervising Attorney

Farmworker Legal Services (FLS) is seeking a supervising attorney with immigrant workers' rights experience to join its dynamic and committed litigation team working directly with migrant and seasonal agricultural workers and community groups to dismantle systems that perpetuate poverty and injustice. The supervising attorney will work closely with FLS attorneys, staff, and other providers to develop and pursue affirmative systemic litigation and community outreach and ensure high quality representation of farmworkers. The supervising attorney will handle cases, provide supervisory support to team members, and assist in directing the legal work of FLS. Ideally, the supervising attorney will be based out of our Kalamazoo office with a flexible remote work schedule option.

This is a full time position, salary starting at $72,520 depending on experience. Applications received by August 9, 2024 will receive priority.
