

RFP: Kansas Civil Legal Needs Assessment

The needs assessment will be used as a key strategic planning tool to help:

Allocate resources effectively.

Track and improve client and case outcomes.

Identify and prioritize the most pressing legal needs of low income client-eligible populations.

This assessment will focus on:

Determining whether or not predominant civil legal issues are adequately addressed.

Understanding the legal needs of minority populations.

Identifying underserved populations and access barriers.

Assessing demographic and trend changes affecting legal needs.

Evaluating service duplication and consolidation opportunities.

See attached PDF for full details. Contact noltem@ksinc.org for questions. Question due by November 15, 2024. Proposals due by November 22, 2024.

Last updated on October 31, 2024.
